Rock Your Career: Aligning Your Job with Your Core Values

Think of your career like your favorite music playlist—wouldn't you want it to play tunes that resonate with you?

Dive into our latest video where we equate your job choices to sticking to your favorite music genre!

Whether you're a die-hard rock fan or have other preferences, your career needs to echo your personal values just as clearly.

Why Values Matter in Your Career:

Self-Discovery Questions to Rock Your Career Choices:

- Values are like your favorite rock band—they define your vibe and guide your decisions. In this video, we explain why aligning your job with your values isn't just important, it's essential for long-term satisfaction.
- Discover the three main aspects of values: Importance, Personal Preference, and Motivation. Understanding these can revolutionize how you approach your career choices.
- What fills your thoughts the most?
- If granted three wishes, you would ask for...?
- Where do you spend most of your time and money? Let's decode what this tells about your priorities!
- What part of your life is the most organized, and what does this reveal about your values?
