Project Number: 2022-2-PL01-KA220-YOU-000098517

★ Introducing HUMAN JOBS: Empowering NEETs and Young People for Meaningful Careers

We are excited to present to you a groundbreaking project that aims to make a significant impact on the lives of NEETs (Not in Education, Employment, or Training) and young people with slight physical disabilities across the European Union. The HUMAN JOBS project is a collaborative initiative designed to address the pressing issue of youth unemployment and provide a comprehensive solution that fosters motivation, self-esteem, and meaningful career paths.

Project Overview: The HUMAN JOBS project is driven by the mission to increase employability among NEETs and young people with slight physical disabilities. Our partners' research highlighted a crucial blind spot in addressing the challenges faced by these individuals, particularly in the realms of motivation and sense of ownership. Many of them are disconnected from the job market and education system, leading to a lack of direction and self-doubt in their career paths.

Project Objectives:

- Empower NEETs and young people with slight physical disabilities with confidence and motivation through positive stories and examples.
- Provide tailored information and training to facilitate their inclusion in the job market, considering their cognitive, emotional, and social needs.
- Promote humanities careers as an attainable and meaningful path for these individuals.

Measurable Impact: The success of HUMAN JOBS will be quantified through various indicators, including the number of engaged NEETs, their application rates for job opportunities, and user satisfaction with the platform. We are determined to reach our goal of engaging 1500 target group members, guiding them toward meaningful careers, and achieving a 60% application rate.
